Deputies Moved to SSF

A sergeant and two deputies from the civil division of the sheriff's office will be moved from Redwood City to South San Francisco to improve police service to the North County.

The decision was made by the Board of Supervisors this morning after hearing from County Manager M. D. Tarshes and Sheriff John R. McDonald Jr. that the move is needed if some of the sheriff's services are to more directly serve the North County without increasing costs to the county.

McDonald proposed that three officers of his civil division, which serves summonses, subpoenas and performs other legal services. be stationed at the court complex on dission Road in South San Fr ncisco.

The two de luties who now perform the same process services must travel from the hall of justice in Redwood City each day

"The sergeant's position would be a new position needed for supervision, but would be offset by deleting an existing deputy sheriff in the civil division." Tarshes told the board.

"Furniture, supplies and other equipment will probably cost around $1,000, to be - funded within the 1974-75 budget approved by your board. Alterations to be performed by the Department of Building Construction and General Services are estimated to cost $3,150 and funds for this purpose can be provided by making adjustments in the approved budget," according to the county manager.

In 1973, Tarshes noted, the workload of the civil division of the sheriff's office consisted of $26,000 executions, summonses, subpoenas and other services. Close to onehalf of the county's population lives in the area to be served by the sheriff's North County facility, and it seems reasonable to assume that around 12,000 services assuming the present workload — would be handled by the North County facility.

"This would result in a reduction in mileage costs to the users of this service because of the distance from South San Francisco to various North County areas is less than the distance from Redwood City. It is not pos-sible at this time to determine accurately what this figure would be, but the sheriff's best estimate is that it might entail a $50,000 reduction from the $125,000 total estimated for fiscal 1974-75."

Tarshes reported that while it is impossible at this time to ascertain the work load of the new facility, when it exceeds 20 to 25 cases per day, it will probably be necessary to add clerical help to the North County

The county manager said, however, that every effort will be made to absorb the additional workload, and if

FBI Reports Local, U.S. Crime Increase

San Mateo County cities experienced an increase in assaults, robberies and burglaries during 1973, according to the annual statistical report of the FBI released Fridy.

Statewide, the FBI's crime index showed a slight decrease, but reflected an increase nationally.

U.S. Attorney General William B. Saxbe called the 1973 figures "discouraging" because it showed an almost 6 per cent increase in total crimes reported, and a 5 per cent hike in the crime rate. The rate was down 4 per cent in 1972.

Bay Area crime rates are difficult to compare because the FBI changed its statistical method during the year, but nationally the trends show:

• A 5 per cent increase in the "violent crime" category, which includes murder and manslaughter, up 5 per cent; assaults, up 7 per cent; robberies, up 2 per cent; and rapes, up 10 per cent.

• An increase of 6 per cent is shown in the "property crime" category, including burglary, up 8 per cent, and thefts and auto thefts, which are up 5 per cent.

The FBI reports that U.S. law enforcement agencies made more than nine million arrests during 1973, and solved 21 per cent of the crimes reported to them.

Among crimes solved, murder ranked highest at 79 per cent, assaults were next with 63 per cent, rapes were third at 51 per cent. Of robberies, 27 per cent were solved. Only 19 per cent of thefts, 18 per cent of burglaries, and 16 per cent of auto thefts were solved.

Suburban arrests rose 11.2 per cent during 1973, while arrest rates in major cities were up only 1.8 per cent.

The FBI reported nationally that the crimes of murder, manslaughter, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, theft and auto theft showed a 4.9 per cent increase during 1973 over 1972.

The FBI says crime increased 23.5 per cent since 1968, a period in which U.S. population growth was up only 5 per cent.

Crime growth since 1960, says the FBI, is a staggering 120.2 per cent.

The FBI's crime index is itself up sharply from 1972. The federal agency points out that these figures are not directly comparable because thefts of property valued at less than $50 were included this year. Previously, such smaller crimes had been left out.

Comparing the numbers of actual crimes reported, however, shows a general increase in certain types of crimes in San Mateo County and its cities within the past year.

The county, for example, reported 15 murders in 1972, up from seven the previous year. Assaults were up to 329 from 232, and thefts were up to 2,369 from 2,261.

Other local crimes listed in the crime index were down from 1972.

In contrast to the county figures, several cities showed increases in burglaries, assaults and robberies.

Daly City's reported crimes showed an increase in murde/s from three to five, a climb in robberies from 69 to 104, a jump in assaults from 56 to 80, and an increase in burglaries from 732 to 768.

Manslaughter, rape, thefts, and auto thefts were down in the North County city during 1973, the FBI reported The city's crime index rose form 2,067 to 3,122 because of the inclusion of lower-priced thefts.

Burlingame showed a 50 per cent increase in crime rate, from 988 per 100,000 citizens to 1,510, and increases in all listed categories of crime except manslaughters.

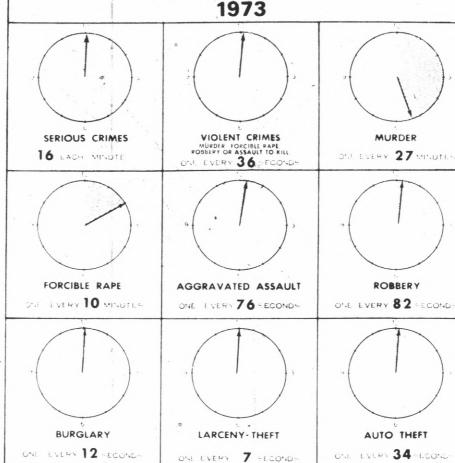

Thefts were up from 699 in 1972 to 828 in 1973. Auto thefts climbed from 140 to 145, burglaries up from 430 to 437, and assaults more than doubled from $5 to 53. Robberies increased form 24 to 37, rapes up from seven to nine, and murders up from zero to one. There were no reported manslaughters either year, according o the FBI.

Pacifica's increases were in murders, from zero in 1972 to two in 1973. Rapes were up from five to seven, robberies from six to 17, assaults from 21 to 31, and burglaries from 371 to 420.

Thefts and auto thefts were down, with the city's crime index up from 806 per 100,000 to 1,273.

Menlo Park crime showed a marked increase in assaults, from 37 to 84, with thefts climbing from 1,034 to 1,18% and murders from zero in 1972 to two in 1973.

Other crimes - rapes, robberies, burglaries and auto thefts - were down. The new crime index is 1,854 per 100,000 people compared to 1,298 in San Bruno showed increased crime in all categories except rapes and burglaries, according to the FBI, and a crime index jump from 997 to 1,990.

CRIME CLOCKS

Thefts were up sharply from 874 in 1972 to 1,193 in 1973, auto thefts up from 186 to 234, assaults to 27 from 19, robberies to 39 from 38, manslaughters to two from zero, and murder from zero in 1972 to one in 1973.

San Carlos crimes were mostly down during the year, although the crime index rose from 777 per 100,000 people in 1972 to 1,071 in 1973.

Rapes were up from two in 1972 to five in 1973, assaults up from 10 to 17, and burglaries from 265 to 279. All other crimes used in the crime index were down.

South San Francisco showed an increase in only one category of crime during the year, with burglaries up from 624 to 659, the FBI said.

adopted plans for two parks. The parks involved are the proposed Sign Hill Park and the Appian Way Park.

Councilmen voted to renegotiate with the Department of Housing and Urban Development for a severely cut back version of the Sign Hill Park of keeping it in a more natural state. Even so, the cost would be about $129,000. The council also approved the ambitious concept plan for the Appian Way Park, but asked for renegotiation with the developer for a change in the plan, including possible park relocation.

The Appian Way Park would serve the area south of Westborough Boulevard. Dick Milkovich, director

Two persons were killed and four others injured in Peninsula automobile accidents Friday and Saturday

Two elderly San Francisco women were fatally injured in a head-on crash that critically injured a third person at the San Bruno off-ramp to Interstate 280 about 3 p.m.

Dead on arrival at Penin-sula Hospital was Theodora Shipley Cancell, 62, passenger in a car being driven by her husband, Benton Russell Cancell suffered major injuries in the crash.

Iva Henning, 75, of San Francisco, died at 2:15 a.m., Saturday, at Kaiser Hospital in South San Francisco, according to the Highway

A CHP spokesman said the Henning car made a wrong turn onto the off-ramp and collided with the Cancell car as it was leaving the freeway at Sneath Lane.

Robert Warren, 20, of 104 Swett Road, Woodside, suffered a compound fracture which sent his right ankle bone completely through his boot when the car in which he was riding smashed into a giant redwood tree on Woodside Road just east of Skyline Boulevard at 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

According to Sheriff's Deputies Douglas Newton and Bruce Molyneux, an auto driven by William Torteon of Half Moon Bay missed a slight curve and hit the tree.

Warren, a passenger in the front seat, was pinned under the dashboard for some 11 minutes until Woodside firemen could extricate him with power tools. Firemen from the State Division of Forestry station at Skylonda gave first aid to the injured, who were taken to Sequoia Hospital in Redwood City.

Traffic on the narrow, two-lane highway was completely blocked in both directions for some time.

Turteon suffered facial lacerations, and a second passenger. Tommy Wolken, 21, of Skyline Boulevard, Woodside, who was asleep in the rear seat, escaped with a facial laceration.

Only Warren was hospital-

Coast Vote On Pipes Reversed

The Pacifica City Council tentatively reversed itself as it voted 4-1, not to ban plastic pipes for drinking water, in a special meeting last

They reintroduced the ordinance, adopting the new plumbing code for the city this time, without the amendment banning the plastic pipes.

Only Sid Lorvan persisted in voting against dropping the ban. Both Stan Farber and Janice Fulford changed their previous stands and voted to drop the plastic pipe

The vote was taken upon some reiteration of arguments given by Ken Hunter of the Plumbers Union and by industry representatives. Hunter claimed the plastic pipe may be cancer-produc-

Farber reported that he had been in contact with the Environmental Protection Agency, which is conducting a special study of plastic pipe, to be completed in about 120 days. If the study should show that plastic pipe is questionable, Farber said. he would introduce at that time a new ordinance banning plastic pipe for conveyance of drinking water.

Farber, a pharmacist, has a double stake in the matter. He reported that most of his pills are bottled in the same kind of plastic as that in question.

Much of the meeting Wednesday night was devoted to discussion of proposed parking at Sharp Park, made more serious lately by the construction of a fishing

The council asked its staff to study sites for parking lots, possibly banning parking along the beachside edge of Beach Boulevard and making some streets oneway. Police, engineers and planners will all be involved in the study.

Book Review by Library Friends

The Friends of the Daly City Library enter fall with many activities scheduled for the month of September, more planned for the fiscal year 1974-75, and a few already successfully com-

The Friends is a non-profit civic organization, whose purpose is to stimulate continuing community interest in the activities of the Daly City Public Library and to provide a bridge of personal understanding between the Library and the community.

It cooperates with the Library Board of Trustees and the City Council to secure better library service for the entire community.

Mrs. H. C. Kincaid, book review chairman, announces six day-time book reviews have been set with a wide variety of subjects to be covered. These are presented free of charge as a community service. Outstanding reviewers have already accepted assign-

For the first review, to be held at 10 a.m. on Sept. 26, in the Coral Room of the Westlake Branch Library, Samuel Chandler, city librarian and author of "Gateway to the Peninsula," official history of Daly City and environs, has chosen the theme. 'The Gift of the Discontent He will feature works of Ina Coolbrith, Helen Hunt Jackson, and Gertrude Atherton, who were among California's first and most noted

As is the custom of The Friends, following Chandler's review he will be honored at a no-host luncheon. Other day-time reviews have been planned for October, December, February, March and April.

A night review has been planned for November.

James Wyatt, dean of students at Skyline College, who presented a popular review last year, will offer his interpretation of a book, the title of which will be announced at a later date.

Two brief evening general membership meetings will be held in January and May by the president, Mrs. John M. Connolly, followed by programs of interest to the community.

Mrs. Klaus Tschorsnig, who was a committee member and has now assumed the role of chairman of the hospitality committee, is put-ting to use her experience from the past year. Among the occasions at which the results of her experience and talents will be seen, will be the no-host coffee hours which precede the book

The Annual Fall Book Fair, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alvin Schwarzbach from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sept. 28, at the Westlake Shopping Mall, will be the result of much planning and work, including sorting and pricing of the used books, records and sheet music to be offered for sale.

Further donations may be left in depositories at each of the three public libraries.

Proceeds from the sale are used each year to benefit the library.

One project of The Friends is the furnishing and equipping of a community cultural room in the new Serramonte Library, being built at Gellert Park. Donations to the fund for the project are being accepted.

The Friends will have an exhibit of library gardening books at the Daly City Garden Club's 20th Annual Flower Show, Sept. 14-15 at the Serramonte Shopping Center Mall. Mrs. Anthony Barichievich is in charge of staffing for The Friends, while Mrs. Joseph Canada and her daughter, Ellen, have designed the exhibit. The show's theme is "Down Memory Lane"

The group engages in other activities which vary from year to year. Last July 4 members had fun and at the same time added to their treasury by manning a teddy bear toss booth at the Westlake Mall.

Lst year, several work-shops were held for those interested in handcrafts to make original felt bookmarks which were sold from time to time.

Volunteers for various activities of the library are often furnished from the ranks of The Friends.

Information about joining The Friends may be secured from Mrs. William Bagnall, who may be contacted through the Westlake Branch, 275 Southgate Ave.,

Donations for tax-deductible dues are a minimum of $2 annually for individuals. $3.50 for families, $5 for clubs or organizations, and $25 for patrons.

Good morning, good cooks.

Since there are so many apples in the markets these days and at such a good price, this seems the right day to share a recipe for a delicious and eye-appealing dessert.

ROSY APPLE PIE

Pastry for 2-crust, 9-inch pie

- 6 cups sliced tart apples cup brown sugar 2 Tablespoons hot cinnamon candy dots

3 Tablespoons flour 2 Tablespoons butter

Line a nine-inch pan with pastry. Combine the six cups apples, one cup sugar, two tablespoons hot cinnamon candy dots and three tablespoons flour in large bowl. Mix well and pour into pie crust. Dot with the two tablespoons butter and cover with top crust. Seal to bottom crust by moistening edges. Crimp edges. Cut slits in the top crust with fork to allow steam to escape.

Bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes, reduce heat to 350-degrees and bake 45 minutes longer, or until apples are

SINCE WE are thinking pies, I'd better add this peach pie recipe before the fresh peach season ends.

PEACH PIE

Pastry for 2-crust, 9-inch pie

- 5 cups sliced fresh peaches 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 3 Taolespoons cornstarch
- 14 teaspoon each cinnamon and nutmeg
- 18 teaspoon salt
- 1 Tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 Tablespoon butter

Place the five cups sliced fresh peaches in a large bowl. Combine the one-half cup white sugar and one-fourth cup brown sugar and pour over peaches. Let stand about one hour. Drain, reserving juice.

In small saucepan combine the three tablespoons corn starch, one-fourth teaspoon each cinnamon and nutmeg and one-eighth teaspoon salt. Gradually add the reserved peach juice. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thick and clear. Remove from heat, add one tablespoon lemon juice and sliced peaches.

Turn into unbaked pie shell; dot with one tablespoon butter. Cover with top crust. Cut slits to allow steam to escape. Bake at 450-degrees for 10 minutes, lower heat to 350-degrees and bake 30 minutes longer.

Gary, who is also a first baseman in the Cardinal chain, later went on to Cal and set hitting records there under his father's old high school coach, George Wolfman. There is little doubt than when the Hernandez family pulled out of Pacifica while Keith was only a freshman and Gary a junior, the Tigers lost a big of their athletic progra

MANY COMPARISONS have been made between Babe Ruth and Hank Aaron concerning their homerun records, as statisticians have broken their careers down into numbers of games played, times at bat, playing conditions, etc., in attempts to ascertain the relative difficulty of their homerun feats.

Perhaps truer comparisons can be made between Maury Wills and Lou Brock, who is about to break Wills' single season stolen base record of 104, because they have both played in the same era, have been contemporaries.

Following are some comparitive statistics. We make no attempts at judgment, here. You can draw whatever conclusions you see in them: Wills, 5-11, 170 pounds at his peak, was 30 when he established his record. Brock, 5-11½, 170, is purportedly 35. but the Baseball Encyclopedia lists him as 38.

When Wills stole his 104 in 1962, he played in 165 games, he hit .299, which was 18 points above his lifetime batting average, (he twice hit .302), got the most hits he ever had in a season, 208, (he averaged 171 the most homers (6), (he averaged 1.5) drew 51 walks (he averaged 43.5). He was on base a total of 259 times that season, exclusive of hit by pitched balls and reaching base safely on errors, statistics which we do not have available.

Brock won't play as many games as Wills, but will almost certainly appear in excess of 150. He is currently hitting .315, which if he retains it, will equal his previous high set in 1964 with the Cubs and Cards, and which is 22 points above his lifetime average. He has hit over .300 four other times. A projectin shows that he should end the season with between 185-190 hits, which is just about his average. We don't have current stats on his walk total, but he has averaged only 47 a year. Brock has only three HR's thus far this season, which is way below par, because he has averaged 11 a year. He will probably get on base 235 times by the end of the season, and steal 115-120 bases.

SPEAKING OF RUTH, the magnetism of the man is stronger than ever, despite the breaking of his single season and career homerun records

Blackhawk Films, a company which sells films of all kinds to the general public for home movie showing, recently announced, to their regular customers only, that a filmed biography of Ruth was not available.

The response was so tremendous that their imitial stock was sold out almost immediately, and the company is now offering money back to those who sent in checks for the film, because it can't guarantee a delivery date on their backorders. All this and they never even, to the best of our knowledge, got to the point of getting out national advertising on the Ruth film.

WHILE STILL on the subject of great old Yanks, we wonder how many of today's young athletes who don't know the different between playing hurt and playing with pain (you don't play hurt, but you do play with pain) realize what Lou Gehrig endured during his 2,130 consecutive game streak, every game in which, incidentally, he hustled.

Besides playing the tag-end of that streak with the debilitating illness which eventually cut his career short and destroyed him, amd the usual complement of headaches, bruises, etc., he played through at least one seriously high fever, was a chronic lumbago suffered, was "beaned" more than once, pulled several muscles and ligaments, and hung im with several assorted broken fingers and toes. And, of course, tired and playing with all of those ailments had to hurt his personal statistics, yet, he

Perhaps Crestmoor High coach Johnny Browne should be more pessimistic than he

The Falcons aren't coming off a sterling season. And they've lost a lot to graduation. As a matter of fact, Crestmoor will be one of the greenest teams around.

Also, a quarterback Crestmoor had been counting on star baseball pitcher Dan Danielson, was knocked out by an injury.

The Falcons could have two starting brother acts. John and Jeff Maxotoupolis. both running backs, might find starting roles. The same goes for Mark and Rick Cornejo, a pair of defensive backs.

Expected to step in, at quarterback is Larry Navilhon, who'll have at least one tall receiver to spot. 6-3. 170-pound Mark Bush.

The Falcon line, which won't be the Mid-Peninsula League's biggest, will be anchored by senior Craig Schoene (6-2, 230) and Larry Timko (5-11, 180), who'll also go at linebacker.

Crestmoor will essentially be starting from scratch this season, and Browne admits he has one of the greenest teams around. But he doesn't sing too sad a song.

One other MPL coach lists Crestmoor as one of the teams he fears this season, and there are at least two other inexperienced teams in the league, so prospects could be worse.

The Padres are loaded with top offensive material. including two returning Times All-County players and last year's leading passer in the West Catholic Athletic League

The passer is Jim Freitas. son of the coach and brother of San Diego Charger rookie quarterback Jesse Freitas

Jim is out to make a name for himself this season, and probably will. He's worked hard on his passing this summer, and he has good people to work with.

RETURNING All-County performers are John Caselli, a 6-3, 180-pound wide receiver, and fullback Jim Walsh, a 5-11, 195-pound bruiser who gained nearly 1,000 yards last year.

Serra may be short on line depth. Only one of last year's offensive starters returns, 6-0, 213-pound John Minahan. who's been shifted from guard to tackle.

He'll be joined by solid players, including Matt Walter (6-1, 215) and Brad Corsiglia (6-0, 198). But they'll have to go some to match last year's feat - allowing just one quarterback sack.

FEW PLAYERS will enter the upcoming prep football season with more solid credentials than Ralph Costanzo. The senior will be starting his third year as varsity quarterback of the Mustangs, defending MPL co-champions. He's the league's premier passer.

But if he has his way, this will be his last season on the Costanzo has baseball on his mind. He'd like to follow the same path as former Mustang Keith Hernandez, who made his major league debut last weekend with the Cardinals at Candlestick Park.

As a matter of fact, Keith's father John has been coaching Costanzo with his hitting. If Costanzo gets drafted. he says he'll have a lot to thank the elder Hernandez for.

Costanzo did a sterling job for Millbrae's State champion Joe DiMaggio team this summer, and major league

"This will be my last year of football if I can help it," Costanzo said. "Football practices can kind of drag as the season goes along. Baseball is always fun.

Also, Costanzo figured he'd be pretty vulnerable as a college quarterback. "If people like (former Serra star Vince) Tamaro aren't starting, imagine the kind of studs who'd be chasing me!

TONY SANTORA, who coached the Millbrae DiMaggio club, thought there was something ironic about the team's winning two State championships in two years.

"Keith Hernandez is probably the best player I ever coached." he says.

"But when we had people like Hernandez and Terry Ruggles, we couldn't even get out of the county," he said. "I think Joe Serena (former San Mateo High and CSM star pitcher) beat us four times in one year.

So why is Millbrae winning titles now? 'Talent's thinned out all around, I think," says Santora. "In my area there might be 650 kids playing Little League. By the time they're at DiMaggio age, I'm lucky to get 15 players — I have to go all the way to Burlingame. The diamonds are empty."

MPL FOOTBALL coaches are pretty happy about the scheduled MPL-NPL postseason playoff.

The NPL champion will be playing the mid champion instead of entering the CCS playoffs. The mid had consistently refused to have anything to do with the CCS playoffs. There were too many powerhouse opponents, too many extra playing dates and too little return from the gate.

"I think this setup is great," says San Mateo High coach Buzz Williams, who might just have a representative in this year's Thanksgiving inaugural.

'It's like a bowl game. Two champions — one wins, and one loses, but even the loser can still feel like a champion. In the CCS playoffs, a league champion is just a rung on a ladder.

Says Cap coach Vince Marchi, "It's a tremendous idea. And I'm glad they're scheduling the game for CSM. If they had it someplace like Burlingame people might get the idea it was just another little prep game. This way it's a showcase.

THE STAFFING situation isn't getting any better in MPL varsity football.

Neal Dahlen left Hillsdale to take the head job at Mills, and Hillsdale assistant Paul Richards left coaching to devote more time to a drug program - leaving head man Ron Anderson and Don Lembi, who switched over from year's 8-2 team, Randy Gomez and Jim Meyersieck.

The senior Freitas figures if the line holds up, the offense could really be potent: "They can score so many different ways."

The Padre defense is still an unknown factor, and it could face stiff problems: several WCAL feams are switching to the Houston Veer attack this season, figuring the Veer is even harder to defense.

'Great Houses' in S.F. a Book For Out-And-Out Pleasure

"The Great Houses of San Francisco.

Ah, here is a book for out-and-out pleasure.

With a text by Thomas Aidala and photographs by Curt Bruce, it presents more than 200 houses in an attempt "to freeze the flow of time.

"San Francisco," Aidala writes, "is a storehouse of architectural treasures" where buildings that would be outstanding in other communities are commonplace. It is an architecture that speaks of a life style that has not been "duplicated since."

So, come wander through the City with Aidala and Bruce. "Here one is struck by the bits and pockets of old San Francisco scattered among the more recent notions of what a city should look like."

Great Houses

Here one finds "as in Rome, the modern city has been built throughout and around an older complex. The living face of the city goes through its metamorphosis and, year by year, its past becomes harder to imagine, more dream-

"THE GREAT Houses of San Francisco" presents the mansions that Gertrude Atherton visited when she said that in San Francisco society is spelled with seven capital letters. Among such buildings is the Casebolt House at 2727 Pierce Street. A dala calls it "almost a textbook of style."

Here also are the mansions at 1045 Divisadero St., at 201 Buchanan; a: 263 - 265 - 29th St.; at 1701 California St.; and many more Each is a place that knew a time "when the gent in fawa-colored suede boots, silk hat atop hair dressed and puf ed and curled would leave in his wake of Macassar oil.

San Francisco is a place, Aidala believes, where mechanisms born of social pressure, human need for change, and developmental greed (have) reduced block upon block of San Francisco houses to the few sad and fewer grand remainint residences, remnants of that prouder time in San Francisco from the 1850's to the

In the epilogue of the book among the 200 or more photographs, Aidala and Bruce express their concern for the preservation of San Francisco houses.

"THERE IS A root, however, a much simpler and more direct reason why a strong effort should be made to save, if not all, at least enough of the very best of these buildings so that they remain a vital and active piece of the City and not museum pieces. They will never happen again . As such they (the buildings) are unique, but beyond being unique they are wonderful, and if they go, San Francisco may be newer, neater and, heaven help us, even in better taste, some might argue; but it will also be a city in which an amputation of extremity has taken place, for we would be cutting off the start, the base line against which San Francisco measures itself

'The Great Houses of San Francisco,' is an important book as well as an interesting one. Readers will join the preservation fight.

An intensive four part course designed to teach the amateur photographer how to solve the photographic problems of landscapes, portraiture, still life, architecture, and figure studies will be presented by the college, starting Sept. 21, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Room 109, Building 2, on the campus.

Photographic composition of both animate and inanimate subject matter will be emphasized by instructor Ed DeMartini. Students will be taught the proper techniques for taking photographs under all circumstances.

City Council will change its meeting night from Monday to Wednesday

Most North County city councils meet on Monday

The time is being changed from 8 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. The change is expected to become effective Nov. 6.

City Manager Ed Alario recommended the change after some councilmen expressed unhappiness with the present meeting nights.

The purpose of the change said Alario, is to allow additional time for study issues on the agenda.

Councilmen receive their packets on the Friday preceding a meeting and have only the weekend to study them.

The change will enable the council to avoid Monday holidays, as well as to end the conflict with the South San Francisco Unified School District, whose board also meets the first and third

Hiring of Trainees Expanded

Additional funding by the U.S. Department of Labor has permitted the hiring of four additional public service trainees under auspices of the Manpower Planning Council, Charles R. Moody. manpower programs coordinator, reported to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors last week.

Moody said the additional trainees, making a total of 15, will be placed in programs in East Palo Alto and in the North Fair Oaks area adjacent to Redwood City.

In addition to East Palo Alto and North Fair Oaks, the cities of Daly City, San Mateo and Redwood City will share in the increased allocation (up to $485,200 from the original amount of $102,600), to supplement their respective programs, Moody reported.

Daly City has 22 public service trainees, San Mateo has 9, and Redwood City has

If you're attending a performance at Circle Star Theater, inform your waitress when dining at Scotty Campbell's and she will serve you with curtain time in mind . . . Now, Stuetzle is deeply caught up in the Castaway (which is one of the Specialty Restaurants chain) and says Specialty will be opening additional restaurants (each with a different motif) at Jack London Square in Oakland and in San Jose.
